

BETRAYAL – Pt3

“Pit Process”

June 15, 2008

When we get pushed into the pit of betrayal, it may seem like we have no choices, no options. But we have one crucial decision to make. We can allow the pit to break us down. Or we can breakthrough to discover life and loyalty on another level.

In the Old Testament, Joseph made that decision and used the pit of betrayal as a launching pad for greatness. But he also recognized that it wasn't an overnight deal. In fact, there's an entire process to the pit experience.

Genesis 39:3-4 (NIV)

3 “When his master saw that the LORD was with him and that the LORD gave him success in everything he did,
4 Joseph found favor in his eyes and became his attendant. Potiphar put him in charge of his household, and he entrusted to his care everything he owned.”

Genesis 39:23 (NIV)

“The warden paid no attention to anything under Joseph's care, because the Lord was with Joseph and gave him success in whatever he did.”

Psalms 40:1 (NIV)

“I waited patiently for the LORD; He turned to me and heard my cry.”

Genesis 40:14 (NIV)

“But when all goes well with you, remember me and show me kindness; mention me to Pharaoh and get me out of this prison.”

Genesis 40:15 (ESV)

“For I was indeed stolen out of the land of the Hebrews, and here also I have done nothing that they should put me into the pit.”

Romans 5:3 (NLT)

“We can rejoice, too, when we run into problems and trials, for we know that they help us develop endurance.”
